

i think that XM radio is the best alternateive to radio there is. Radio is a near monopoly, if you take these opportunities away from new businesses then you are simply contributing to it. On top of that you are limiting the availability to yourself. how would you like it if tv was never allowed. you would be siting next to aa rediculous radio all day.